Dedication

The yearbook staff of JCHS dedicates the 2005-2006 WILDCAT yearbook to Mrs. Deanne Smith. Mrs. Smith has worked with dedication as a secretary at the Joseph City schools for the past 21 years. She spent four years at the Elementary and then moved to the Jr./Sr. High school. Mrs. Smith has been a friend/ "grandma" to many students through the years. She has been a true Wildcat supporter. Her hobbies include: family, grandkids, and church work. Her smile, friendliness, and helpfulness will truly be missed. We thank her for the many years of service to the students of the Joseph City schools and wish her the best in all that she pursues.

Take time to stop and enjoy life, for the clock moves fast. You will blink your eyes and you will have children finishing High School and moving on with their lives all too soon. We are very proud of you and your accomplishments and the goals that you have set for yourself. As you step out into the world and take your place among the ranks of millions of sailors who have served our country before you, remember that you represent the greatest country on earth and carry forward the legacy of those who have gone before you. Keep your head high and your heart right, always working hard no matter what the situation, to be honorable and just in everything you do and you will succeed beyond your wildest dreams. There are two more things to always remember, stay close to God and follow his direction and remember that family is second only to God in importance in our lives.

We Love you and are Proud of you Brandon.

Son,

If ever a day changed my life it was the day you came into it. Everything was so much better. I couldn't believe that God had blessed me so much by giving me a son. The world was filled with so much hope and joy and so many possibilities. It still is. Remembering you going through the doors on your very first day of Kindergarten, I never thought this day would come so soon. Watching you grow physically and to see you mature into a man and into you're own person. You have so many talents, not only your musical talents, but your skill for applying yourself to the things that interest you. Everyone that knows you also knows of your desire to love and to be loved, and how gentle such a big man can be. Son, follow your dreams and desires and remember that you have a right to be happy, and that I Love You unconditionally and Forever.
